QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

Have you applied for Special Fees in the past 3 years? If so, please detail the outcome of each attempt.

Each application for Special Fees has been approved. Our previous budgets were marginally modified. Last year, we were approved with 54% voting Yes.

If you applied for Special Fees last year, is there an increase in the amount you're seeking this year? If so, why?

No increase.

Please define the services provided by your group with the Special Fee, as per the ASSU Constitution:

Printing of the third-largest publication on Stanford campus, which allows a forum for all politically motivated writers.

What are the three largest line item requests in your budget and why?

1. Printing costs - the requisite costs of publishing each issue of the Progressive.
2. Distribution costs - the cost of gas/equipment/car rentals for picking up the issues from PIP printing and distributing them around campus.

What is the average attendance at your events?

We host social events that usually garner crowds of 50-100 people. These events are covered by our individual funding sources, and not by Special Fees.

How do you plan to publicize your events/programs to the greater Stanford community? Have you registered with Events at Stanford?

We publicize through e-mails, in our publication itself, on our website, and with flyers. We have not registered with Events at Stanford.

If you are an umbrella group, please list the groups for which you are applying for Special Fees, their ASSU account numbers, and contact information for their financial officers.

Not an umbrella group.

Please list all:1) assets, 2) reserves, 3) authorized and unauthorized non-ASSU bank accounts, 4) sources of funding other than Special

1. Assets - The Progressive account: $3,781. Money goes towards food for meetings, staff retreat, and public social events.
2. Reserves - $7,032 rolled over from previous years.
3. Other accounts - none.
4. Other sources of funding - Campus Progress grant of $2,000 made 2 years ago that has not been renewed.

What events/programs does your group hold throughout the year for the Stanford Community?

As a journal, we are open to any and all writers wishing to write on political topics. We also host large politically-themed social events, and are currently working on potential speaker events.

Why are you requesting Special Fees?

Because Special Fees is the only source of funding that allows us to continue printing our publication. It has been our funding source for publishing costs for the past years.
